

The image is a collage of various elements related to Greek mythology. At the top, there are handwritten labels for various gods and heroes: Aesclepius, Aphrodite, Apollo and Artemis, Zeus and Hera, Theseus, Demeter and Persephone, Telephus, Electra, Clytemnestra, Agamemnon, Helen, Perseus and Medusa, Medea, Jason and the Argonauts, and Heracles. In the center, there is a circular seal featuring a bird, possibly a dove or an eagle, with a small figure on its back. Below this is a title card for 'THE GREEK GODS ARE NOT DEAD!' with a subtitle 'And with Varitan's Illustrated Greek Myths they are more relevant than ever.' The main book cover for 'Varitan's ILLUSTRATED GREEK Myths' by Yonah Ignacio Varitan and Federico Ulises Parolo is shown, featuring a large, ornate circular illustration of a scene from Greek mythology. To the right, there are three smaller illustrations: one showing a figure in a chariot pulled by winged horses, another showing a figure standing on a bridge over a waterfall, and a third showing a figure in a chariot pulled by horses through a landscape. At the bottom, there is a logo for 'Orphiflamme Press' with the address P.O. Box 4366, Boulder, CO 80306, phone number 303.417.6483, and website www.varitans.com. A copyright notice at the bottom right states 'Copyright © 2010 Orphiflamme Press. All rights reserved.'
